Rocky Mountain Bakery is a local gem with baked goods worth trying, but the cold service may leave you wanting more. While some customers praise the generous gestures of the owner, others have been put off by the unfriendly staff. The prices are steep, especially for sandwiches, but the baked goods receive rave reviews. The coffee is great, making it a convenient spot for ferry-goers. Overall, the mixed reviews suggest that while the food is tasty, the inconsistent customer service may deter some from becoming regulars at this quaint bakery.
