The restaurant from Toronto offers 77 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of CA$12. Nestled in the heart of Downtown Toronto, Pi Co. offers a unique pizza experience that allows customers to craft their own pies with unlimited toppings, making it a haven for creative food lovers. Despite its allure, the restaurant has faced criticism for inconsistent service and food quality. Many patrons report disappointing experiences, including burnt delivery orders and a lack of gluten-free dough. While the Margherita pizza and cinnamon bread receive praise for their taste, issues with portion sizes and order accuracy detract from the overall enjoyment. For those willing to navigate the ups and downs, Pi Co. may still hold some hidden gems.
