The restaurant from Montréal offers 100 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of CA$14. The all-you-can-eat sushi restaurant offers a wide variety of menu options, including seafood, fish, sushi, and grilled items. The sushi is fresh and tasty, with friendly and efficient service. While some patrons found the rice to fish ratio off in some rolls, overall, the quality of food was praised. The ambiance is pleasant, and the restaurant is conveniently located near the center of Montreal with easy parking. However, some customers complained about the lack of cleanliness, nonexistent liquor license, and disappointing desserts. Despite some minor drawbacks, the majority of reviews recommend giving this place a try.
