What User likes about La Maison Grecque:

Loved the experience! The host was very welcoming and the food was fantastic. Like many restaurants in Montreal they don't serve wine, you have to bring your own, which I was unaware of. Regardless, the food was delicious, I totally recommend it. What User doesn't like about La Maison Grecque:

Friendly and efficient service. Did not charge cake cutting fee for large groups. Byow helps a lot. Both the souvlaki and the chicken had this salty honey mustard sauce that wasn't great, where a simple garlic herb sauce would have been much better. The side salad barely had dressing on it. The chicken cream soup was good. The calamari was okay, small portion and basic for the price. The Greek coffee was as described. If you want to at the end of the workday have something and hang out with friends, La Maison Grecque from Montréal is a good bar, while their Greek dishes are highly regarded, the establishments also have a varied menu that appeals to visitors. No matter the occasion - an event - the in-house catering makes it easy to enjoy the food from La Maison Grecque at home, Likewise, the table guests of the establishment prefer the comprehensive selection of different coffees and tea specialties that the guesthouse provides.
