My wife and I had lunch here and were thoroughly satisfied. I had called a week earlier to make a reservation and was told that one was not needed because the patio dining area was rarely full during lunch. This is likely because the restaurant is located near the end of the bus route for the Niagara Falls attractions. An interesting variety of foods on the menu and very reasonably priced. Eating on the covered patio... read more. What User doesn't like about Queenston Heights Restaurant:

We arrived for a late lunch and waited an hour and a half for our food to arrive. When it did finally appear some of the hot items were cold and appeared to have been plated for a considerable period of time, possibly awaiting preparation of the rest of our party's food. The food itself was largely tasteless. The view is spectacular, but accessible without going to the restaurant which should be avoided. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. Queenston Heights Restaurant, popular for its original Canadian meals, uses products that are typical of the country, The guests of the restaurant also appreciate the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Inthemorning a hearty brunch is offered here.
