Great place to come for a bite with friends or family. The dry ribs were delicious and the portions were really hearty. My friend had the seafood melt. Looked pretty tasty to me and he really seemed to enjoy it. Staff were friendly and took care of us quickly. Worth a stop if you're hungry for sure! Plus it's nice to get away from the normal chain restaurants now and then. read more. What User doesn't like about Nick's Family Restaurant: A late evening dinner on a weeknight, so it was not busy. There was no one there to greet us, although the sign said "wait to be seated". Another customer told us to go to the lounge for better service. In the lounge a server greeted us immediately and then seated us in the restaurant area and from then on, service was very good. I had a closed Denver sandwich with fries and both were very tasty. My friends shared a s... read more.
