My all time favorite is honey garlic chicken balls! Their food is tasty, and cooked by a real Chinese family. Everything I've eaten there is good, and inexpensive. The restaurant is more like an old diner, with Formica and chrome furniture!. What User doesn't like about Hing's Chinese Food:

Called over an hour ahead (70 minutes actually) for a takeout order. Got there to pick up and still waited another 30 minutes. Food was pretty good but certainly not authentic. Some dishes are a reasonable price, others are really expensive. If you love authentic Chinese it might be worth waiting for your next visit to a bigger city!. When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside. A visit to Hing's Chinese Food is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. You can also look forward to delicious vegetarian cuisine, Many guests show especially their enthusiasm for the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine.
