We went as a group for dinner and everyone was very pleased with the high quality of the food and the well coordinated service. The private room works very well for a group event. It's nice to have such good Italian food in Orleans in a setting that has a very warm and welcoming ambience. read more. What User doesn't like about Cucina da Vito:

I like the atmosphere, decor and service. However the food is underwhelming and overvalued as a result. I was there with a group in the closed off room to the side. It gets overheated very quickly so you have to open the doors and then the noise of the rest of the restaurant intrudes. However, not a major issue. I ordered escargots and it was okay - very small escargots, overpowered by the sauce. The salmon alla grigli... read more.
