The restaurant has been around for years. So I do recommend visitors from out of town stopping by. Price wise $...typical for Chinese food Staff is friendly Lots of tables to sit at including booths and an outdoor patio. Great food. Parking is scattered. There is a spot to park, but there are other options to park at too. read more. What

User doesn't like about Ko's Restaurant:

Many Bridgewater residents like Ko's it seems to be a staple. I went there twice. The first time I got the Shanghai noodle and it was not very good it tasted like nothing but burnt soy sauce I tried to dump some sweet and sour sauce on it to make it taste better and it did not work. The eggrolls are delicious meat paste type with a little curry and they are a little on the thin side. The second time I ordered the veggi... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. If you're desiring some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: delightful meals, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you have the opportunity to try tasty American dishes like Burger or Barbecue. Many guests also especially enjoy the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine, On the menu there are also several Asian meals.
