Love this place and don't get to go often enough. Great Schnitzel and that is the only thing I get with the spätzle of course. Service was good and quick. Great authentic German food and worth visiting if you get the chance. Rumors were this place was closing but the Server advised us that it had new owners and were not closing in the near future. I hope they do not close. read more. What User doesn't like about Sauter's Inn Restaurant:

My husband and I had supper and shared the combo platter for two. It had two kinds of sausage, smoked pork chops, schnitzel, steamed veggies, red cabbage and sauerkraut. We ate until we were full and took home the leftovers. It was quite tasty although my husband wasn't a fan of the dill sauce on the veggies. We will go back again and try the peppercorn schnitzel which comes highly recommended by friends. Make reserv... read more.
