Located in Chinatown's Holiday Inn, this fine restaurant was a great place for a relaxing dinner after a busy day of touring. While a little pricey, they do accept Entertainment on-line coupons which make it a great value too.

Must try the Shanghai chicken. read more. What User doesn't like about Chez Chine:

I didn't try the asian food, I had something from the bistro menu and it was because I really didn't want to go out.

Really average! The breakfast was too expensive for what it was... read more. You can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. A visit to Chez Chine becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. Naturally, they also serve you with tasty pizza, baked straight from the oven in original style, and you can try delicious American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
