When i go there i usually cannot make up my mind because i want everything. Homemade fries and gravy are delicious. Very dated but it is a part of the charm. Hasn't changed since I was a kids going there with my parents.

Good quality at a good price. Service is always great. A lot of the same faces that have been there for years.

My wife and I made the mistake of not ordering fish and chips. Instead we ordered the turkey with dressing. Meal was cheap but not at all tasty. Fries were soaked with gravy, but the fries are maybe the thing they do best.

Turkey was fair, and the dressing was terrible. Coffee included in the deal had been on a burner for a long time. This place is a greasy spoon with cheap prices. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and
