Inside, it looks like any other restaurant. But the menu is outstanding and the food is awesome. Very good choice of local beers. We took the beef short ribs as well as the grilled kangaroo and were both overwhelmingly satisfied: tasty and cooked to perfection. We also took the sticky toffee pudding (very good) and peach crumble (just slightly too sweet). T... read more. What User doesn't like about Rays 3rd Generation Bistro Bakery:

Everyone has an off night and last Friday was Ray's. Our last visit everything was on point from the food to the music. This visit the food was okay and edible but no where near the taste experience we had before. Even the musician was off doing his own rendition of popular songs. Completely different vibe, we will try again, hopefully it just an off night. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. A visit to Rays 3rd Generation Bistro Bakery becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, there are also delicious vegetarian recipes in the menu. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, It shows that the versatile Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the local.
