dinner on a Sunday evening and surprisingly the restaurant was not too busy. the host sat immediately after we told her we had a reservation and we waited about 8 minutes before our server greeted us. we gave her our order and she brought our drinks within 3 minutes after the order. the main dish came out in a respectable time and it was very delicious. Given the fact that the companies make it hard to find trained s... read more. What User doesn't like about Simcoe Yard House Pub:

Our table was available earlier than our reservation time which was nice. Our waitress had a great personality but didn't know the specials or any general information about what special events were happening at the Casino. One the meal was brought to us she never came back in a timely manner and cleared our plates. We had to hunt her down for the bill. read more.
