We had late night salad and an appy. Both were good. Our waitress was very nice. The menu was very big and had some delicious looking items in it. Would definitely go again when in the area. We are out on the front patio which is nice with a fountain figure in the middle. read more. What User doesn't like about The Granada Restaurant & Pizza:

The menu is extensive but the food is pretty average, our elderly parents go there often and we try to avoid it at all costs. Lovely owners but the menu is out of date for a middle aged audience.
