For a small and cozy little diner such as this, this is probably one of the better places to have breakfast or lunch in the southeast end of Brandon. Their menu is pretty basic, yet it is enough to satisfy almost anyone. Bacon, eggs, hash browns and toast with coffee is a filling enough breakfast for me that I can go the rest of the day with my appetite satisfied, and at a fairly reasonable price point to boot. Their... read more. What User doesn't like about M's Eastside Eatery:

My friends and I went there for lunch. My friend ordered scrambled eggs. When her order arrived she had fried eggs on her plate. She informed the waitress of the error and the waitress took her plate back to the kitchen. 2 minutes later the waitress brought her plate back and put it in front of her. They had chopped up the fried egg and put it back on the plate. Unbelievable! Everyone at the table sat in shock that a... read more.
