Dined in solo on a busy Friday night. Staff were very attentive, and the food arrived quickly. I had the Spicy Combo, with 3 sushi rolls, and starts with a hot bowl of Miso. Great value for 20$. My server was very kind, and checked in on me often. Unfortunately there was a very loud angry man in the dining room, ruining the experience for everyone else. Good job to the staff for remaining calm and ensuring all the... read more. What

User doesn't like about Mii Sushi & B.B.Q:

Despite the name of this restaurant, Mii Sushi is more Korean than Japanese. Our server seemed to be Korean and did not speak English very well ... she also did not understand when I asked whether they have sushi combos served on wooden boats, which is pretty common in Japanese restaurants we have been to in Canada, U.S.A. and Japan (we later noticed several such wooden boats stacked on a shelf behind the sushi count... Fans of Korean cuisine are in the right place here: With Kimchi, the most diverse versions, preparations of Bibimbap, Bap, you will also find various, delicious Jjigae that please the palate, scrumptious particularly are the Sashimi and delicacies like Te-Maki that this place is known for. Surely, it's also a nice experience to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and eat like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice tasty burger, there are also delectable vegetarian menus on the menu.
