We were looking for a place for lunch and decided to go to this place. It was the perfect choice. From the outside a very cozy restaurant looked out and we were warmly welcomed by the gracious hosts. The service ladies were very friendly and answered all our questions with a great smile. We ordered Queensadillas. The food was fresh, crispy and delicious. Honestly, this was one of the best Quesadillas I had in a long... read more. What User doesn't like about Anna's Home Cooking:

Food is awfully overpriced, and the crowd does not justify prices. Absolutely unhappy. Food lasted over 40 minutes to get out, and was the serving size for a toddler. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. The Anna's Home Cooking originating from Fort Smith dishes out various flavorful seafood meals, The original Canadian dishes are a hit among the guests of the restaurant.
