Never, ever have we been disappointed when we eat here. Plenty, hot, filling, and if the dish we were looking for in the buffet was not there, they made it for us. Topping up tea, water, checking on if you're enjoying your meal... REPEAT, REPEAT and repeat returns always for our special outing days. read more. What User doesn't like about City Light Buffet:

After reading the reviews we thought that we would try this Buffet. Everything and I mean everything was bland and zero flavor. The sauces they used tasted like they had watered them down. The pepper shrimp was just a name for small deep fried shrimp as I guess they ran out of pepper or decided to cut cost and omit the pepper. They advertise the largest Buffet but I would really doubt that also. The $13.95 is a ok price f... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. In City Light Buffet from St. John's, expect versatile, fine Chinese cuisine that's authentically cooked in a wok. Also, the customers of the establishment love the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. The tasty Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out however, is the undisputed highlight of this restaurant. Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different meals with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
