If you are heading up to Alaska then you are most likely driving through Dawson Creek..mile 0 of your trip.The must go to place is Hug a Mug, great sandwiches, home baked goodies, try and find a better cinnamon bun! I have dropped into this cafe for years, new owner makes it even better. Alanda Stables has brightened up the place in many ways. I always get a bagel sandwich to go with a great cup of coffee and share a... read more.

What User doesn't like about Hug A Mug:

It is very expensive... >$10 for a sandwich... they do not have a soup and sandwich special. It will cost you >$15 for soup and sandwich... very expensive.I was not brought my coffee once I sat down at my table. Definitely needs to update its menu and specials. Often slow, as you pay at the "kitchen" like subway style. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. Enjoy the delicious meals and enjoy the great view of the local places of importance at the restaurant, It's worth mentioning that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the establishment. In addition, they provide you delicious seafood meals, The dishes are usually prepared in a short time and fresh for you.
