Heading back towards Vancouver we decided to have a light lunch so pulled over to this road side eatery, service was very fast, though we had to wait a bit for the actual food. Sadly we arrived just after another table. Food was reasonable quality, though don't order the fries if your vegi as they are cooked in the same oil as the meat. They were happy to customise the omelette to my wifes wishes. Not a place for romaic... read more. What User doesn't like about Rancher's Restaurant:

The boyfriend and I stopped here for breakfast and would recommend it for some home cooked food. I had their eggs Benedict and it was so good!! My boyfriend had their meat breakfast skillet and he liked it. A cute location if you're interested in...golfing or going for a hike! read more.
