Had the buffet and although it is not huge we really enjoyed it. Very tasty and reasonably priced. The waitress was super nice and very friendly. Breakfast was equally as good. Next time we pass through we will definatly eat here. read more. What User doesn't like about

Burning Barrel Cookhouse:

We ate in the lounge and were the only ones in there. The view of the city and mountain was amazing, that was about it. It took us 10 minutes to get a drink, 15 for a menu and nearly half an hour to order. The food was mediocre at best and was so salty we couldn't finish it. Next time I'll go to the Indian food across the street (which is really good) read more.
