We have eaten at Mamma Martino's a number of times when in Etobicoke. The parking is abysmal and especially in the summer when Tom's ice cream stand is open. That said the food is very reasonably priced in the area of $9 - $13. Servers don't seem particularly professional and more seat of the pants but we find the food good. For a large group it is good or just a couple. Be prepared for a wait if you have a large gro... read more.

What User doesn't like about Mamma Martino's:

We have eaten here in the past and was delicious but things have changed. Food quality has fallen. My wife's chicken parm was tough and grizzly and my veal marsala also tough. Cook just poured the marsala over the cooked product . Salad was served on the same plate as hot entre. Plating 101.....cold items served in cold dishes, hot on hot ones!!!! Was really looking forward to eating here but will not come again read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. For quick hunger in between, Mamma Martino's from Toronto provides fine sandwiches, small salads, and other treats, as well as hot and cold drinks, and you will find genuine Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Naturally, they also serve you with delicious pizza, baked fresh in original style, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
