Ate there twice during my stay in the Sheraton Cavalier. The price is reasonable for a hotel breakfast. I would recommend a la carte dishes as they are freshly prepared and are a good value, unless you're extremely hungry, which you might want to do the buffet. Overall a very good experience, the food was good, but the service was even better. read more. What User doesn't like about Colors Bistro: Ate breakfast here - lots of options from traditional breakfast meals to quick, buffet style breakfasts. Our meals came quickly. Eggs and toast were perfect. Bacon was a bit too smoky and chewy and the "hashbrowns" were not hashbrowns but breakfast potatoes. Prices were reasonable for a hotel restaurant. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. Thanks to its selection of typical, delectable menus at typically affordable prices, this small yet fine Bistro not only excites with its ambiance, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, you'll find fine American meals, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, You can also discover scrumptious South American cuisine on the menu.
