Accidentally ended up here prior to a dinner rezo at another place. Table wasn't ready...no problem we will find something to do and explore....these guys were full, had a waiting list, bar was packed and the lovely owner still accommodated us for a quick beer. We were willing to stand and enjoy our delicious hops but she insisted we have a window seat (it was reserved but not for another 20 minutes.) Every employee... read more. What User doesn't like about Goods and Provisions:

We left hungry and disappointed. This place behaves like it is 'all that,' it ain't. The food went from pathetic to interesting, but too small a portion and expensive. The staff were only interested in serving us, if we were trying to order drinks. Not terrible, but very disappointing. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. The eatery offers a bit of this and a bit of that with its appreciated Tapas. Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied diversity of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. The pleasure of various sports events is just as much a big draw, when you are in this sports bar, The traditional Canadian dishes are well received by the customers of the restaurant.
