Being born and raised in Moncton for 24 years, there's no excuse why it took me so long to get here to McSweeney's. My wife and I finally had the perfect reason to go, a co worker was celebrating her birthday. This is a gem in Moncton, and whether you are a tourist or a local, you must come! Ordered the trout and it was perfectly cooked and seasoned. The actors interact with the audience and the broken fourth wall makes... read more.

What User doesn't like about McSweeney's Dinner Theatre:

The entertainment was OK. Some great talent in the cast, however, they need to wear headset microphones as a few cast members were difficult to hear and we were sitting fairly close to the set. The sound was also pretty bad at times. They could...use a sound engineer. Way, way too crowded!!!! Tables are crammed, can't push your chair back. Atmosphere on the main floor is cafeteria type with mostly long narrow tables.... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, McSweeney's Dinner Theatre from Moncton is a good bar, It's worth mentioning that the versatile Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the establishment.
