My wife and I dropped in at this place this past weekend for dinner on our way North. The food was wholesome and nice. The service was amazing - very prompt and friendly. This is a family restaurant and seems to be a place loved and frequented by the locals. The waiting staff seemed to know the patrons by name. That is always a good sign. In terms of pricing, it is slightly over priced - we paid $46 (incl a 15% tip), f... read more. What User doesn't like about Anchor Family Restaurant:

The staff are really friendly and helpful. The food is average and filling, but my partner said the liver and onions was the best in years. We finally found a place where the liver is cooked properly. Soup was OK and rice pudding fine. Beware Wednesday nights as it is seniors night and the place is often packed because of the great deals. read more.
