It was a holiday today and since most Japanese restaurants are closed, we have no choice but to eat here. It's not bad nor that great, so it's just ok for us. I ordered Bibimbap and it's just like stir-fried beef w/ egg on top. It was a bit bland for me so I keep adding soy sauce. I have eaten only twice in this restaurant as I find the other Japanese restaurants better. read more. What User doesn't like about Oya Japanese Restaurant:

Found the menu items pricey. Understandably given the location. Ordered several take out items. Only two sets of chopsticks provided while there was more food ordered than for two. Dishes were average in flavour. We will not return to this spot preferring other dining options. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. At Oya Japanese Restaurant from SUN PEAKS it's possible to savor delicious vegetarian meals, that were made without any animal meat or fish, among the delicacies of this place are especially the Maki and Sashimi.
