We usually get our sushi from here "to go". The "to go" cartons come with ample wasabi and ginger and soy sauce. The sushi is often just short on the nori, so the pieces don't always stay wrapped together. Sometimes when we plan to stop here, the place is closed. The hours seem mysterious! Overall, decent sushi and a better value than many sushi restaurants. read more. What User doesn't like about Sushi Miso:

this small restaurant with limited seating. during our visit we sat in the wolves and waited for the service of a person in the kitchen. Our waitress seemed to bring out that we need food service, not very warm. eating. we ordered was good, but the portions were very small and sporadically served, so we eat a plate that waits a long time for the next portion. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations.

Sushi Miso from Medicine Hat creates for you fine sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in addition to many additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and you may look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. The dishes are prepared according to authentic Asian style, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals cooked.
