What User likes about Wong's Cafe: We arrived just about at closing time (our train was late), but the owners were accommodating and whipped up our order promptly. Chicken egg foo yung was the winner, along with the chicken balls. Fried rice was fine. Moo goo gai pan was ordinary. Service prompt. Portions huge. Vegetables were not overcooked! The leftovers from our dinner were enough for breakfast and lunch the next day (we did order an extra dish). read more. What User doesn't like about Wong's Cafe:

Perhaps having eaten authentic Chinese for most of my 50+ years, I can't stomach western style "Chinese" food more than a couple times a year. Sure, it will fill my gut, and maybe expand my waistline LOL but when there are far better options for...More read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. In Wong's Cafe in Canora, they prepare crispy pizza using a traditional method, served straight out of the oven. Naturally, you should also taste the scrumptious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. Even the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine is very popular among customers, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
