We ate lunch on the patio overlooking the bay on a beautiful august day. The menu offered a wide array of interesting salads and entrees. We particularly enjoyed the beet and scallop salad. Service was excellent. We'd return here to sample more of the menu. read more. What User doesn't like about Rebecca's Restaurant:

Not usually one to complain but the dishes we ordered were very disappointing. The noodles in Asian salad were not cooked properly and pizza was on pita bread. Not very tasty but nice location. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. Rebecca's

Restaurant is famous for its typical Canadian meals, made from typical country products, and you can look forward to the tasty classic seafood cuisine. Surely, it's also a nice experience to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and sample like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice spicy burger, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
