The choices were wonderful. I had lamb stew; but had a hard time deciding. One person had prawns and spinach. There were four of us and can't remember what the others ordered; but we were all very pleased. read more. What User doesn't like about Oaks Restaurant and Grill:

Great service in a relaxed and casual atmosphere that is decidedly British lol. Made reservations for Sunday brunch, central location with parking nearby, and loved how each of the food selections had half orders available. read more.
