Really cool experience for a once and a while thing. Breakfast was okay. Standard menu. Comes quick and isn't over priced. Service was very pleasant. Security screen required to enter building so bring an ID with you. That shouldn't deter you though as it is not invasive. Better breakfast places in the area but nothing wrong with this place at all. read more. What User doesn't like about Legislative Dining Room:

It's a government building, so that means a secure airport style entry with a scanner and metal detector. Once approved, you get a visitor's badge and directions down the halls under this impressive building, to walk into a dining room from the early 20th century. White linen nails the era and an efficient black-and-white clad server glides through the tables. OK, breakfast is breakfast... eggs, omelettes, toast, jui... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The fresh and tasty juices listed on the drinks menu optimally complement the menus of the local, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian dishes, The tasty sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack.
