We had lunch here recently prior to attending a show at the nearby theatre. We two old folks and a teenager enjoyed our lunch there very much. Although the place was very busy, we were waited on in a very timely fashion by a very friendly and efficient waitress. The lunch menu consists mainly of a variety of sandwiches, named after famous actors. I had the Marcel Marceau ( a reuben sandwich,) which I very much enjoye... read more. What

User doesn't like about Actor's Casual Dining:

An acceptable but uninspiring restaurant. The facility is a bit worn out, the food is OK, simple and tasty. The location next to the Victoria Playhouse in Petrolia is its main drawing feature. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. Actor's Casual Dining is renowned for its typical Canadian plates, which are prepared with products typical of the country, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. The environment of the typical American diner creates a unique encounter, additionally, the Greek treats are extremely popular with the guests of the restaurant.
