The food was great and the sandwich were outstanding. It is located near downtown St. John's and Sheraton Hotel where we stayed. We have tried the breakfast in hotel but Zachary's was far better. read more. What User doesn't like about Zachary's:

I went in for breakfast as I like to support small businesses. I was on my own and felt most unwelcome when I was told I had to sit at a small table 'because it will get crowded'. That did not materialize and there were no more than three tables occupied the entire time I was there. Service was slow, flat and inattentive. The server (owner?) spent all her time talking with one particular table. The breakfast was sati... read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Zachary's, It shows that the traditional Canadian menus are well received by the visitors of the local. When you're not so ravenous, you can just treat yourself to one of the scrumptious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, You can also look forward to the typical tasty French cuisine.
