following a recommendation, we went to eat in this place. located in the heart of the small Ormstown municipality whose look recalls the times of old, really special. the service is good and cordial, the place was crowded and seems to be the meeting place of the people of the place. the place is clean and reflects a certain period. We ordered a special pizza casa venezia and the general comment wow, it is excellent!W... read more. What User doesn't like about Casa Venezia:

The food is ok, the service can be really slow and sometimes lousy. their pizza is delicious if you like the thick crust, sinfully greasy but tasty variety! The rest of the menu is alright, and the breakfast is definitely sort of boring. Coffee wasn't that great last time I was there..but it used to be really good, so not sure what happened since then. For breakfast, you can enjoy a rich brunch at Casa Venezia, as much as you want, Don't miss the chance to have the tasty pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an traditional way. The restaurant also provides Greek dishes like Gyros and Souvlaki with the matching sides, The customers of the establishment also consider the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
