Shared the seafood chowder, which she split into two bowls and pretty much filled both to the brim! It was soooo good, filled with big pieces of seafood! Then we shared a donair sub with caesar salad (a special of the night) and a poutine. The donair was good, but some kind of sweet sauce/mayo in it seemed like an odd addition. The salad and poutine were standard. Serving sizes were huge!!! And the waitress was love!... read more. What User doesn't like about Glooscap Restaurant & Lounge:

Only Family Restaurant in Town, Open all Year Round. Quality and serving sizes depend on the day. I've had excellent food there, good portion size, I've had small portions, poor quality tasting and presentation food. Prices are probably average but sometimes you feel it wasn't worth the money and vow not to return but being in the small town you know the owners and go back to support local business and in the hopes y...
