We were driving around and decided to just try this restaurant for Sunday lunch. It was full of patrons. It was pleasantly nicer in the inside than what I expected. Lots of menu choices to figure out what combination or pasta dish you wanted paired with a soup and/or drink. We tried the fish noodle soup in a very mild broth and two item meat combo with sole and chicken thigh options with spaghetti. Ample free parking... read more. What User

doesn't like about Superstar Cafe:

Came here with my family. Ordered a fried rice and a soup noodle. Both came with regular hot drinks so we ordered two Hong Kong milk teas. The food was pretty good, but the milk teas was sub par. Tasted watery without much tea taste. As a typical Hong Kong style cafe, milk tea and coffee are the staples, and what sets you apart. On a side note, I also noticed their logo is using the Disney font. I'm not sure if there... read more.
