On a Sunday, probably not the best day to go brunch, we headed out to Pacini. Although there was a waiting line, the whole time we were well received. Upon receiving our table, the kids enjoyed the bread bar. The waiter was most convenient and funny. Our meals were delicious, warm and in sufficient quantify. The atmosphere is pleasant and warm. read more. What User doesn't like about Pacini:

The food was good, but the service left a lot to be desired. One waitress took our order. Another delivered our food. Neither came by to see if everything was satisfactory. We had difficulty flagging the original waitress down (long after we had finished our meal) to request our check, only to end up waiting another long while before we received our check and paid. We will not return. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. Tasty pizza is baked hot from the oven at Pacini in Rimouski using a traditional method, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. If you'd like something after-dinner treat for dessert, Pacini does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
