Our friends suggested this place after a simple google search for osso buco. When we researched it, it appeared to have some character. We arrived (two couples) to a group awaiting The Social's Melissa Grello. It turns out they were holding a surprise BDay Party there for her. Aside from some of the minor side-show b-day party, the place had a great vibe. Not your typical bistro - better. Our server was great. Suggested a great... read more. What User doesn't like about Gio Rana's Really, Really Nice Restaurant:

The fact that this place is popular in this neighborhood is a testament to the poor taste of the locals.... yes, it's a fun and lively venue, but pleeeaaasaaee... the food is horrid, and $14 for one chicken leg! The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. If you want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Gio Rana's Really, Really Nice Restaurant from Toronto is a good bar, and you can expect typical Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. The restaurant also offers a good variety of spicy tapas, which are certainly worth a try. Also, the guests of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
