Simply stated, this is the best Chinese in the city of Winnipeg. I have been eating there since I was a child (I'm 48 now) Family run, fast, take out or delivery. Not a bad item on the menu. I only wish they were closer to where I now live in the city because NOTHING compares in the south end! A++++ read more. What User doesn't like about Peking Restaurant:

The extra star is for the customer service here. The staff here are kind and respectful, unfortunately, the quality of food is on a steady decline. In the pictures I have included, I ordered the sweet and sour chicken. Horrible! It tasted like some kind of syrup you would put on ice-cream inside of eat with the rice. Calling this Chinese food makes me sad because not only is it inauthentic and grossly westernized, it... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. In Winnipeg, traditional dishes are prepared in the kitchen of Peking Restaurant with original Asian spices scrumptious, Many customers show particularly their enthusiasm for the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Peking Restaurant. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients consume.
