We had dinner at Ali's after a full day of driving a motorcycle. Building is in top shape; service is excellent; just about the right pace. We had no reservations and even if it was quite busy hour, they found a nice spot for us. Food is excellent, furniture is up to date, and people working there are happy which sounds like management is doing well. read more. What User doesn't like about Ali's Grill & Bar:

Ate at Ali's earlier this month. There were about 16 of us there for a celebration. The servers came around with water but only served about 10 of us. They took our orders, a lot ordered steak. When they served us, they forgot who was getting what order and most came back medium well even though they asked us how we wanted them cooked. May or may not return. We shall see. read more.
