Ever since Lake Loon slammed the door on their wings, I have listlessly wandered Metro in search of the perfect WING. That quest ended Sunday; it ended at Jenny's Place. If I want to pay for atmosphere, I'll head off to the Cut or de Maurizios, but if I just want a nice cold beer and Epic Wings, from now on it will be Jenny's. Roland, Julie, Meaghan and the Short Order maestros in the galley poke out a great wing wit... read more. What User doesn't like about Jenny's Place:

This place is a tavern. Big open room with tables and there's not really a bar to sit at...there is, but it's not sry welcoming with the 4 seats always being taken up by local drunks. The service is horrible and very unwelcoming and the food is overpriced and not very good. I avoid this place. Unfortunately, it's right beside where I live, so once or twice a year I might find myself having a beer there. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. Jenny's Place, popular for its traditional Canadian meals, uses products that are typical of the country, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Watching various sports events and competitions is equally one of the pluses of visiting this sports bar, The guests of the restaurant also consider the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
