While going out to see a show in Markham my wife and I decided to drop in to the King Edward's Arms before the show since it was right across the street from the theater. The atmosphere was casual and comfortable and the service was prompt and friendly. The menu had a good variety of pub style food at fair prices. My wife had the special which was salmon and I had the fish and chips. Both were excellent in presentati... read more. What

User doesn't like about King Edward's Arms:

We usually go to this pub for beer and pub food - nachos and chicken wings mostly. All good. First time went there for a dinner of Halibut Fish and Chips and were disappointed with the quality of fish, the batter as well as chips, particularly when you consider the cost of $55 for two people with one drink. Place has good atmosphere and good service. Hope they can improve the quality of fish n chips. read more. King Edward's Arms from Markham is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub presents a generous diversity of fine and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine.
