Don't think you're lost when you're driving to find this place. It's off the beaten path but it's well worth the drive from downtown Edmundston (it's not long either). The pizza is amazing and they have a very good assortment.

Try the garlic bread with the local bacon! The beer (on tap) is great and the staff are friendly. Can't forget to mention that they offer gluten free pizza. All around great experience.
