is located a few steps from the place jacques cartier. usually have tables available despite their location and quality of food. There are others nearby that if you go unreservedly the wait is usually very long in the summer season. The food is good, prices a little high but according to the area. The service is fast and attentive. They offer children's menu and supported us with making a mixture of a type of pasta wi... read more. What User

doesn't like about L'Usine de Spaghetti:

wait queue while there are several free tables, very small salad bar and rather ordinary salads. My dish (the Mont-Royal plateau) did not taste much. Smiling waitress, correct service.
