The menu of Yuko maki from North Vancouver includes 216 menus. On average, menus or drinks on the card cost about CA$17. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What User likes about Yuko maki: This is my restaurant for take-outs, the most reasonable restaurant in North Vancouver. They used to have Super Combo for $9.99 (now: $10.59), and Sushi Special for $6.65 (now:$7.29). I understand Vancouver is getting so expensive and this restaurant is still reasonable and quality is good.... read more. What User doesn't like about Yuko maki:

The lunch special offers a lot of choices and comes in a decent portion. The price is very good for what you're getting. However, I do not care for the customer service there, especially the older lady at the cashier, who always slams your change or your take-out order onto the counter without a thank-you or any signs of politeness.

I have temporarily stopped going there. Hope they work on their customer service. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. With fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Yuko maki from North Vancouver prepares for you delicious sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out) and numerous additional variations, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the large selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Yuko maki. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
