Service was excellent, although they might have offered a coffee refill. I ordered the scallop dinner special, with mango and curry sauce. I found the quantity of scallops and potato small, but the taste was great. My wife had the naked shrimp dinner and also had a meagre portion. We were hungry and had bumbleberry pie for dessert, again a limited portion. Fine quality, but not a place for those with large appetites.... read more. What User doesn't like about The Captain's Table:

Cheerful but not particularly cheap is how I would sum it up. Food is OK but limited in range. Drinks OK. Staff are nice and friendly and choice in the area is limited. read more.
