My husband loves his turkey dinner so when he saw that the Sunday night feature at the Millpond was a traditional turkey dinner, we had to go. We had been touring the local area and wound up getting to the Millpond at about 4:00. Unfortunately the turkey dinner was not available until 5:00. We decided to wait and started off with a terrific appetizer of crispy shrimps and a couple of beers. Closer to 5:00, signs were... read more. What

User doesn't like about Mill Pond Restaurant:

Visited here on a lunchtime. The food was mediocre with cheap ingredients. We had quesadillas which consisted of cheap chicken and rubbery cheese. Would not rush back. Service was also slow unless you were a local otherwise you were ignored. Would not visit again. Most disappointing meal...of our stay in Canada read more.

The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available without additional charges. Experience the sensation of eating and being in a classic American Hollywood movie; that's very normal in this authentic furnished diner, The traditional Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the restaurant. If you'd like something dessert to finish off, Mill Pond Restaurant does not disappoint with its large selection of desserts, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
