We went here as a group for dinner to celebrate a birthday. There are lots of beer on the menu that are supposed to be on tap but they do not have them. There were a few other things that were on the menu but we could not get- such as pina colodas because the slush machine was broken, and the dessert. However, despite this, the food was great, the service was good and we found alternatives to the things we could not g... read more. What
